DWIGHT SPENGLER, as Personal
Representative of the Estate of VERONICA J.
BARKER, Deceased

Plaintiff,

Case No. 06-cv-10036

v.

ADT SECURITY SERVICES, INC.,

Defendants.

ORDER REQUIRING DEFENDANT TO DELIVER DOCUMENT

Plaintiff contends that the contract he signed was printed in such a way that “[a] copy of the actual form must be seen to fully appreciate the subtle design intended [to] defraud customers.” (Plaintiff’s “Memorandum in Support of Response to Motion for Summary Disposition” at 19 [Dkt #23].)<sup>1</sup> He further asserts that in the course of discovery he has only received one copy of the form and that an original copy will be served upon the court at oral argument for Defendant’s pending motions. (Id.) The court, believing that its consideration of this case will benefit from an advance viewing of this form document and that Defendant in the course of its business is in possession of multiple copies of it, will order as follows.

It is ORDERED that Defendant submit to this chambers two duplicate copies of the above-described form document. Defendant shall make certain that the court
